INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL

COLLEGE OF TOURISM AND HOSPITALITY MANAGEMENT

Goals & Objectives

The college is committed to the development of graduates who can work effectively as managers of tourism and hospitality industry. The program seeks to achieve the following objectives:

- To provide students strong theoretical and practical training for management and entrepreneurial roles in the hospitality and tourism industry;
- To develop future hospitality leaders and professionals through practical training and education while building, understanding goodwill and friendship;
- To promote knowledge and skills in developing network opportunities in hospitality and tourism linkages throughout the world;
- To continuously involve the CTHM faculty members in the hospitality industry through active research programs as well as regular involvement with industry firms and professional organizations
- To promote the quality classroom instruction and complement it with seminars, workshops, and experiences that will maximize the quality of curriculum that conforms to the present changes of hospitality industry
- To meet the demands of the hospitality industry by preparing individuals for effective job performance in the industry;
- To establish linkages with international training experts that will continuously upgrade the qualifications of both faculty and graduates
